GRADATIM

presented in this, the 1960 edition by the Graduating Class of

SACRED HEART JUNIOR COLLEGE

AND

SACRED HEART ACADEMY

Belmont, North Carolina

Nestling in the Blue Ridge Foothills

In her beauty rare.

Nature blends color and harmony in the peaceful atmosphere of the campus.

Graciously, our Alma Mater

* Wide open spaces

* Foster largeness of thought

* And give a vision of beauty to be cherished forever

Sacred Heart in the beautiful Piedmont region of North Carolina is located in Belmont, a center of learning and culture—for many years the home of Belmont Abbey College for Men, and Sacred Heart Junior College for Women.

Snow in this section is rare but frequently enough to high light the winter season.

The 1960 Gradatim is dedicated to Abbot Walter Coggin, O.S.B., Monk and Benedictine Priest. While we love and revere Abbot Walter for his character and charming personality we are grateful to him for his consistent efforts to make truth reign supreme.

Officers: Dorita Salgado, President; Angela McGoldrick, Vice-President; Barbara Collins, Secretary; Maureen Bauman, Treasurer.

Sodality aim for 1960—
"To Make Christian students true Christians."

A spiritual force binds all of the activities at Sacred Heart together, and imparts to them meaning, purpose, and strength.

STUDENT COUNCIL

No student government could function successfully without a strong student council. The officers are—Mary Alys Heim, President; Joan Falardeau, Vice-President; Tamara Hedrick, Treasurer; Betty Kinnealy, Secretary; Louise Brooks, Social Chairman. The other members of the council are the Presidents of the Clubs and Organizations at Sacred Heart.

DAY STUDENT ASSOCIATION OFFICERS

HALL COUNCIL

These young women have taken much of the responsibility of representing needs of the students and supplying the needs, making progressive improvements, wise regulations for the good of the group. They functioned to bring about better assembly programs, intellectual development of student body, activities to set high standards of student conduct.

LIBRARY

Always the student grows and matures from discussing questions with her conferees between classes as much as she does in the actual work of the classroom.

Every phase of development is important to a well-rounded life.

"... Christian education takes in the whole aggregate of human life, physical and spiritual, intellectual and moral, individual, domestic and social, not with a view of reducing it in any way, but in order to elevate, regulate and perfect it, in accordance with the example and teaching of Christ."

Each season emphasized its particular sport to give relaxation from the strenuous life of the class room.

I watched the changing seasons through the eyes of tradition.

September brought Rat Week, freshman initiation with its cookout.

A good man is like tea; his real strength appears when he gets into hot water.

Chief of Police Jesse James with Sister Christine, spoke on Juvenile Delinquency "Delinquents are made not born."

There was the Thanksgiving banquet in November; decorating for the Christmas banquet in December.

It was a busy time, with the parade in Belmont, trips to the Charlotte Town Mall, complete with the excitement of the long awaited trip home.

There was the Twelfth Night Ball in January, the semester exams, the basketball season, and the Freshman Follies in February.

Important days. Examinations, when the man was weighed as in a balance.

Every now and then when the going gets the toughest, one of those "extra special" evenings comes up and raises everyone's spirits for weeks to come. For many a year we'll have these "Moments to Remember."

Sacred Heart Cagers Cop Tournery Over Cav Outfit

Sacred Heart's Ramblers ram- bled to the championship in the Knights of Columbus Tournament finals yesterday afternoon at Charlotte Catholic.

Ted Crunkleton's charges played their best basketball of the season, upsetting Charlotte Cath- olic and Benedictine of Rich- mond along the way.

They beat the Richmond entry in the finals, 53-52. The Cavalier kids, with an enrollment of 400 boys, had grabbed top honors for two years in a row. Sacred Heart's enrollment is 30 boys.

"I'm really well-pleased over winning the tournament," said Crunkleton. "I don't want to single out any individual as hav- ing a bigger hand in the win- than they all played like champions."

To get to the finals, the Ram- blers had to get by old nemesis Charlotte Catholic Saturday night. They did it with a 50-43 win. They had won their opener over Asheville Catholic Friday in sudden- death, 54-52.

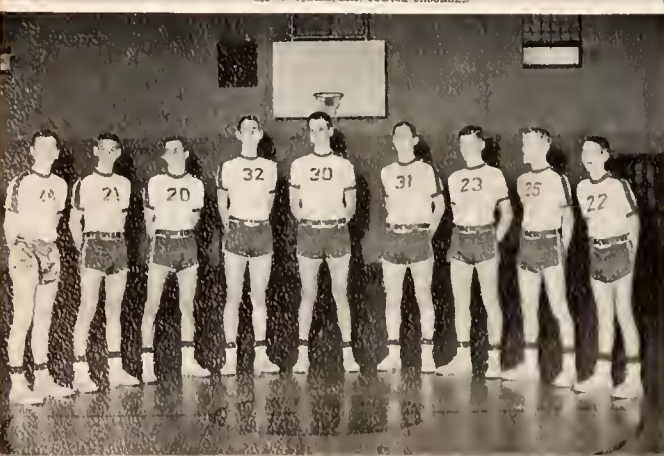

Johnny Brasch of Crunkleton had the hottest hands in the championship game. He scored 21 points, with fine outside shooting.

record against Catholic during the regular season, led at half- time 26-24.

They pulled steadily away in the second half, as they held big Catholic center John Delaney scoreless.

Peanuts McNaughton led the Catholic fireworks with 20 points. Winning the Knights of Colum- bus Tournament was quite an achievement for the Ramblers and an honor well-deserved.

A Gal Ramble

—BY DWIGHT FRADY—
(Gazette Sports Writer)

It was kindo like Duke's win in the ACC tournament.

Sacred Heart's winning the championship in the Charlotte Knights of Columbus basket- ball tournament, that is.

Duke surprised all and so did Sacred Heart.

Nut that the Ramblers didn't have the ability all along.

For their unforgettable show- ing in the Charlotte Catholic Gym, Sacred Heart is The Gazette's "team of the week" number four.

Young Ted Crunkleton's club entered the tournament with several teams rated higher, including powerful Benedictine of Richmond, Va.

The Cavaliers had won the Knights of Columbus Tourna- ment two years running, and they were eying a third one so they could keep the beauti- ful rotating trophy.

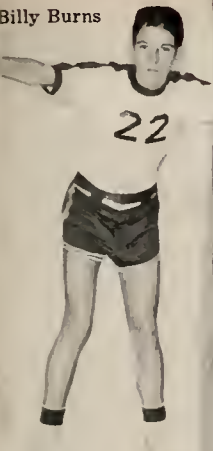

But the Ramblers gunned up their works.
